COMMISSION GOVERNMENT

Results Shown in Several Cities
Not Favorable to Advocates of This System

The adoption of the Commission Form of city government is being strongly advocated in many cities of the state at the present time. The backers of this latest fad in municipal government point to the cities of Eau Claire and Appleton in our own state and the 100 or more cities throughout the United States that have blindly adopted the Commission Form in the hope of bringing about the Millennium. They assert that in every instance Commission has worked out to the greatest advantage and that it is therefore advisable for every other municipality to adopt the same form of government. Now, the truth of the matter is that these 100 or more cities have adopted Commission without really knowing what it is. Antigo is an excellent example of just such an instance. A few citizens, oppressed by a sense of civic duty, suddenly got the idea that Commission Government would be just the thing for Antigo. They thought so long and hard upon this question that now they can see only advantage in the adoption of this system. It into a first class motion picture. In fact, they are commencing to land vaudeville theater. The plate believe that if their pet scheme is glass front will be taken out and not adopted after ruin threatens the open lobby maintained, and the city. Yet their fear is ill founded. Interior will be redecorated through since a commission advocate, imported to Antigo by these same gentlemen, declared, after an examination of the city records, that he saw no reason whatever why the people of Antigo should desire a change in government. Despite this fact a small group of individuals is trying to foist Commission on the city.

This condition is typical in nearly every city where this agitating has sprung up. And the peculiar thing of this movement is that in every instance theorizing is indulged in. We are told of the many cities that have adopted this ideal system; we are told of the many benefits to be derived from it; yet a casual investigation will disclose the fact that these advocates of the new thought very seldom back up their arguments with facts obtained in those cities having Commission.

The principles of Commission Government have been so widely discussed that it is not necessary to outline the law at this point. The fundamental idea of the system is to do away with the city council and the mayor and substitute in their place a group of three elective officials. These officials are to care for all city affairs and make all subordinate appointments, in other words, a fusion of the present legislature and executive departments in the hands of three men.

Let us see in the first place what the advocates of this system have to say in its favor. An argument most frequently advanced by those favoring Commission is that it will give "better service," because it tends toward a government by experts, better officials will be elected. In theory this contention sounds well. It would seem that where a lucrative salary is paid a better class of men will enter the race for office. But we need not theorize upon this subject. Let us turn to those cities which have had Commission Form for any length of time, let us turn to the hundred or more municipalities that have blindly switched at Commission Government since 1910, thinking that with this ideal system better men would be elected, and what do we find? We find that in some cases a better class of men did come out for office but we also find that in almost every instant this "better class" was defeated at the polls. We find that Des Moines, Iowa, elected as its Commissioners five old time office holders and politicians. Houston, Texas, furnishes the same proof. Politicians are in control of every city office. The Mayor of Houston has been an office holder for twenty

PRISCILLAS ENTERTAIN

Give Hard Times Party in Appropriate Costumes—Limericks Add Amusement

A unique party was given by the Priscillas last Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Eppley, Dahl St. The invitations read somewhat as follows: "You are invited to attend a Hard Times Party at the Relief Station Eppley—Bread line will form at 7:45 P.M."

The costumes worn were appropriate to the occasion and each person carried a package to "help out." At the door the ladies were given names suggestive of their attire, an exhaustless supply having been selected to cover all sorts and conditions. Each person present wrote a limerick and such unexpected talent was displayed that the judges had difficulty in awarding a prize. It was finally given Miss Leona Morgan. Mrs. Grant Clark received first prize for best costume, the name given her being "Mrs. Noah." With such scantiness of apparel in some cases, it was feared pneumonia would result, but no cases have been reported.

BIJOU IMPROVEMENTS

Hanson & Taylor took control of the Bijou today and by the first of next week will have commenced making improvements on the place, preparatory to its re-opening the latter part of the month. The building will be changed over in many ways, it being the intention of Messrs. Hanson and Taylor to make it into a first class motion picture. In fact, they are commencing to land vaudeville theater. The plate believe that if their pet scheme is glass front will be taken out and not adopted after ruin threatens the open lobby maintained, and the city. Yet their fear is ill founded. Interior will be redecorated through since a commission advocate, imported to Antigo by these same genlemen, declared, after an examination of the city records, that he saw no reason whatever why the people of Antigo should desire a change in government. Despite this fact a small group of individuals is trying to foist Commission on the city.

CHANGE IN LYCEUM COURSE

Socialist Speakers Cannot Reach Here
on the Dates Advertised

On account of poor railroad connections the socialists of this city are having trouble in getting the speakers for the lyceum course. The speakers have to jump from Madison to this city and they can not get here in time to speak that night. It was due to this fact that W. F. Ries, who was booked to speak here last Tuesday night, did not appear. Arrangements are now being made whereby a new set of speakers will be sent here direct from Chicago. If the arrangements can be made, the first speaker will be here in about two weeks.

MANY FROZEN SERVICE PIPES

The unusual long spell of extreme cold weather that has prevailed here has caused the frost to penetrate to a greater depth than for several winters, and in many localities of the city it is down to and even below the water mains, causing many service pipes to be put out of commission by freezing. There is little danger to the mains as the water is not likely to freeze except on dead ends, and there are very few of these in the city. All through the month of January the local plumbing firms have been kept busy daily, thawing out pipes for private consumers.

FURS PLENTIFUL

Ang. Peters, who is buying furs for Matt. Kristensen this winter, made a trip to Summit Lake Monday, where he purchased a fine lot of hides. The fur-bearing animals mostly trapped at this season are mink and musk-rats. Prices for these skins have a wide range, according to the condition of the fur, a large first-class rat hide bringing as high as sixty cents while an inferior one but ten cents.

SPLENDID TIME AT SCHWENK'S

The masquerade at Schwenk's hall January 27th was attended by a large crowd who seemed to enjoy themselves every minute of the time. The dances at Schwenk's hall draw large crowds and all report nice times.

PLAY INDOOR BASE BALL

Men of St. Augustine's Church
Have Pleasant Evening
at the Game

The men of St. Augustine's church held a social meeting at the Guild Hall, Thursday Jan. 24th. The feature of the evening was an indoor base ball game between the Wickers, R. A. Reik, Capt., and the Hoodoo, C. H. Donaldson, Capt. The line up was as follows:

Winners Hoodooes
G. Hilgerman, c. G. Davies
E. O. Brown, p. C. Donaldson
E. Meekna, f. b. Ed. Ruggles
E. LeLand, s. b. F. Huff
R. A. Rick, t. b. G. Bellamy
J. Matt, r. f. P. Browne
C. D. Bronson, Abner Conro, W.
T. Jamieson, substitutes.
Father Johnson, Umpire.

E. O. Brown made the only home run. Both batteries were very effective, and the slippery floor aided the players, enabling the runners to slide most of the distance to the bases on their backs, and the pitchers to deliver some of their swiftest balls from a recumbent position. The winners did not justify their name, losing by a score of 15 to 13, but they succeeded splendidly in escaping the penalty of their defeat, which was to wash the dishes after the game. Abner Conro, took first honors, defeating all comers.

JOINS REGULAR ARMY.

Bert Palmer, the colored cook who worked several years at the Fuller, wrote the New North that he has enlisted in the army for a term of three years as cook and is now at Fort George, Washington.

He says he has an easy position but misses his old friends at Rhinelander. He expects to return here when he has served out his term of enlistment.

YOUNG MOTHER GIVES HER LIFE

Mrs. Alex Roberts of Nashville, Forrest county, brought to St. Mary's hospital Friday of last week died Sunday morning, death resulting from septicemia. She was eighteen years of age and leaves besides a husband, an infant daughter whose lamp of life was lighted by the dying embers of mother love. Burial was made at Forest Home cemetery on Monday afternoon, services being held at the Hildebrand undertaking rooms.

INDIANS MUST MARRY

Recently, attention was called to a rumor that the Indians at Flambeau were living together in an unmixed state. Dist. Atty O'Connor of Vilas county went to Flambeau last week to investigate the matter and found nearly a hundred couples living together. A decree has been issued that Indians must adopt the white man's law. Fourteen couples immediately made application for marriage licenses and it is said there are nearly a hundred that will follow.

HUNTER SLAIN BY WOLVES

Unknown Man And Two Dogs Found Partially Devoured

The partially devoured remains of an unknown man and his two dogs were found Saturday near Eagle River. From indications of a desperate fight, it is supposed that the hunter was attacked by wolves and he and his dogs were overcome after four wolves were killed.

TO SPEAK ON TIMELY TOPIC

Miss Harriet Grim, national organizer of suffragist associations, and Miss Olympia Brown will speak at the council room of the city hall Feb. 5th on the great subject of "Woman's Suffrage." Do not fail to hear them. This is a great problem for Wisconsin voters to settle at the next election and we should be prepared to meet it. Hear these speakers with nation wide reputations and judge for yourself.

GEORGE CARROLL THROWN

Minneapolis Man Proves Too Much for Local Wrestler

The boxing and wrestling carnival held at the Opera House Friday evening was one of the most interesting affairs of its kind seen in this city for many months.

The curtain raiser, a four-round bout between Napoleon Breneau and Anthony Fayette, was one of the closest preliminaries possible. The boys fought every minute and there was no "stalling". The fight was an even one until the last round when Breneau put Fayette to the mat with a left hook to the jaw where he lay until the gong saved him from a knock-out.

The next go was a six round bout between Sharette and Belonge. Sharette had the better of every round but Belonge was game and always came back for more.

The Christensen brothers gave a classy boxing exhibition for the fans. They went six rounds to a draw.

The main go of the evening was the wrestling match between Geo. Carroll of this city and Young Larkins of Minneapolis. This match was extremely interesting as the men were very evenly matched. Carroll having his man best in strength and endurance and Larkins having it on Carroll in skill and training. Larkins got both falls, the first in thirty minutes and the second in thirty-three minutes.

This match makes the 13th he has taken part in and he has never been thrown.

LET'S HAVE A GYMNASIUM

There is a movement on foot in this city at the present time to start a gymnasium here. The young people have very few choices in the way of amusement and this is one of the reasons that all the young men are not just what they ought to be.

If the business men would band together and start a club along the lines of a Y. M. C. A. it would show a progressive spirit.

The Armory for instance, would make an ideal place for a thing of this kind and a club of this kind ought to be able to secure it at no great cost as the building is used for drill but once a week.

This matter is being talked up so strongly among our business men that now all that is needed is a leader to start it.

WATER POWER LAW INVALID

State Supreme Court Decided Legislature Overreached Itself.

Declaring that the effect of the enforcement of chapter 652 of the laws of 1911 (the water power law) would be state appropriation of property right of riparian proprietors of the banks of navigable rivers without due process of law, that a mere declaration of state authority to regulate navigable rivers in the interest of navigation—a self evident fact—is unimportant and contrary to fact if construed as an assertion that the state owns the natural power capacity of such rivers for public purpose, or to lease or grant for private purpose, the supreme court declared the "water powers' act," as passed by the last legislature unconstitutional and enjoins enforcement of any part of the law except as to future non-interference, without state permission, of streams navigable in fact but not meandered.

Court Unanimous in Opinion

The opinion, written by Justice Timlin, is by unanimous decision of the court participating. Justices Kerwin and Barnes not sitting.

Justices Barnes and Kerwin have interest in water-power and did not sit.

GROUNDHOG DAY

Tomorrow the groundhog is supposed to come forth from his winter quarters and make the weather for the balance of the winter. According to the old saying if he casts a shadow at mid-day he returns to his winter quarters to remain another six weeks, but should he fail to see his shadow, winter is at an end, he does not return and warm, bright weather follows for the rest of the winter.

WILL COMMENCE COURSE FEB. 12

Agricultural School Plans To Double Value of Farm Land in Oneida County

Plans for barns and other farm buildings will be drawn and silos will be studied. These are but a few of the many good things which are in store for the ambitious young man who enters this course.

It is planned to extend this course next year by adding the study of plant and soil pests, animal husbandry, general farm machinery, etc.

No one need to fear that the work will be too theoretical or "book farming." It will be made thoroughly practical in every way.

The Christensen brothers gave a classy boxing exhibition for the fans. They went six rounds to a draw.

The main go of the evening was the wrestling match between Geo. Carroll of this city and Young Larkins of Minneapolis. This match was extremely interesting as the men were very evenly matched. Carroll having his man best in strength and endurance and Larkins having it on Carroll in skill and training. Larkins got both falls, the first in thirty minutes and the second in thirty-three minutes.

This match makes the 13th he has taken part in and he has never been thrown.

This is our motto for the course in agriculture: "Double value of farm lands in Oneida County in ten years. We can reach this aim, if our young men will take hold of the magnificent chance which the agricultural course offers them "without money and without price."

The course in Agriculture for the young men of Oneida county begins Monday, February 12th. It would be very difficult to overestimate the importance of this new movement.

The big game of the evening was between Rhinelander and Wausau and was a fast but rather one-sided affair. It was the first game of the season and gave a sort of an idea how the first team stands. The referee held the players very strict to the rules and as a result about fifteen fouls were called on the local firsts. The players have been in the habit of playing a little freer and were frequently fouled because of this. The first half ended with the score 30 to 12 in favor of the locals.

The visitors scored only one basket on a field throw, the rest being the result of free throws. In the second half the game was faster and less fouling was done, and the score ended 53-16 with Wausau at the big end of the score. Turner and Johnson starred for the locals, while McDermott starred for the visitors. The line-up was as follows:

Rhinelander Wausau

McDermott (capt.) e Thielke-
Montgomery

Bonnie r. f. Johnson
Joslin l. f. Turner, capt.

Lewis r. v. Eggerbrecht-
Schuette

Hagen l. g. Ruder
Subs., Rhinelander-Thielke, Hill-

Umpire-Schinner.

GIVE MINSTREL SHOW

Six little niggers gave a minstrel show at the Congregational church Saturday evening. The six were members of Mrs. Rieke's and Miss Brown's Sunday school classes, and who aspired to raising a little money to help along.

Their stunts were cleverly done and much enjoyed by the audience. Between six and seven dollars were cleared. The other classes were puzzling as to what they can do to start a fund and keep up with these enterprising boys.

TOMAHAWK TO PLAY HERE

Hatchet City Basket Ball Warriors to Meet Local Players Friday Night.

The Rhinelander High school basket ball team is booked to meet the Tomahawk basket ball team at the Armory Friday night, Feb. 2. It is expected that the game will be a fast one, as the Tomahawk lads have, it is reported, one of the fastest teams this year that the Hatchet city High school has ever turned out.

And the local boys smarting from the defeat they received at Wausau last week, declare that the score they will run up on Tomahawk will be greater than the score Wausau made against them. So come out and help the boys do it by your rooting. Two fast preliminary games will be played, one between the girls' team and one between two picked boys' teams.

LADIES VISIT ANTIGO

A district meeting of delegates from the Rebekah lodges in Oneida, Vilas, Forest and Langlade counties will be held at Antigo on Friday, this week. The following members will attend: Mesdames Risley, Foster, Sweet, Niles and Noland.

A chimney fire at the residence of Adam Schleeman on King street called out the fire department on Monday morning at 3 o'clock. Some damage resulted from smoke to rooms on the second floor.

TO SPEAK ON

OUR NEW INCOME TAX

Only Those of Wealth Will Be Affected
Plain and Clear Explanation of the New Law

The income tax law passed by the last legislature provides that for the year 1911 and annually thereafter an income tax shall be assessed and levied against the incomes of persons, firms, corporations and associations. The law, however, provides that a person may deduct from his gross income the necessary expenses of conducting his business, profession or occupation, and then from his net income thus ascertained, he is further allowed an exemption of $800, a man and wife $1200 and also $200 additional for each child under 18 years of age.

After the deductions and exemptions have been made from the gross income, the remaining portion of the person's income will be subject to an income tax, which will be at the rate of one per cent. on the first $1,000 or part thereof, and increasing with each additional $1,000 of income until a rate of 6 per cent is reached, when the rate will become stationary.

In order to illustrate, we will assume that a man has a wife and one child under 18 years of age. We will assume also that he has a gross income of $2,500 and that the necessary expenses of running his business during the year were $600. Deducting his expenses from his gross income will leave a net income of $1,900. From this sum take $1,200, the exemption for himself and wife, and also $200 additional for his child, and here is left the sum of $500, which will be subject to an income tax at the rate of one per cent., making his income tax $5.

The law provides, however, that if a person pays a personal property tax he can take his receipt, which he received upon payment of his personal property tax, and have the same accepted by the tax collector or to its full amount in the payment of taxes due upon the income of such person during said year. Therefore in the case mentioned, if the man has a personal property tax of $4, he can have his receipt for this tax accepted in payment of his income tax to the amount of $4, leaving practically only one dollar of income tax to be paid.

It seems plain from the foregoing that the income tax will touch the great majority of the people but slightly, if at all. It is only those of large incomes that will be affected much by this law. In the case of firms, partnerships, corporations and associations, there are no exemptions.

Every person who is subject to pay an income tax should make a return of his income to the assessor of incomes, and the said assessor shall require every person whom he thinks may be subject to pay such tax, to make a report of his income. The law prescribes severe penalties for making fraudulent or false returns and for neglecting or refusing to make a return. The tax is to be assessed and collected in the district from which the income is derived, and will be placed in the tax roll and collected at the same time and place as other taxes and by the same collector. Seventy per cent. of the tax will go to the town, village or city where assessed, twenty per cent. to the county and ten per cent. to the state.

The law has created much discussion and some criticism, yet it is a measure that has been passed only after much deliberation. In the first place our state constitution was amended so that such a law could be enacted. This amendment was first passed by the state legislature in 1905. In 1907 the legislature of that year also passed the same amendment and in the fall of 1908 it was submitted to a vote of the people and was carried by a majority of nearly three-fourths of the votes cast on that question and so became a part of our state constitution. The next legislature, that of 1909, appointed a committee to consider the matter of an income tax law. This committee held hearings in different parts of the state on said subject after the legislature had adjourned, and afterward formulated a bill providing for an income tax, which was reported to the last legislature when that met, and which legislature after much consideration and discussion finally enacted our present income tax law.

It will thus be seen that the principle of an income tax has been endorsed successively by each one of the last four of our legislatures and was also in 1908 endorsed by a direct vote of the people.—Stevens Point Gazette.

45 Degrees Below Zero

This All-Steel Hot-air Furnace kept every one of its customers warm and thoroughly comfortable all during this last COLD SNAP.

One enthusiastic customer states:

"When I retired last Thursday night, the temperature in my living room was 74 degrees. I had filled the furnace with four-foot Hemlock slabs and shut it up tight, opening the check draft, and at 6:30 next morning the temperature was 72 degrees, while the thermometer outside registered 45 DEGREES BELOW ZERO."

We investigated all of our "METEOR" ALL-STEEL FURNACES in the city and found that they were standing the demands of this extreme COLD SNAP while many other Furnaces and Steam and Hot-water systems had failed.

THE TOMAHAWK "METEOR" ALL-STEEL HOT-AIR FURNACE

"EVERY DOLLAR IT COSTS SAVES ANOTHER."

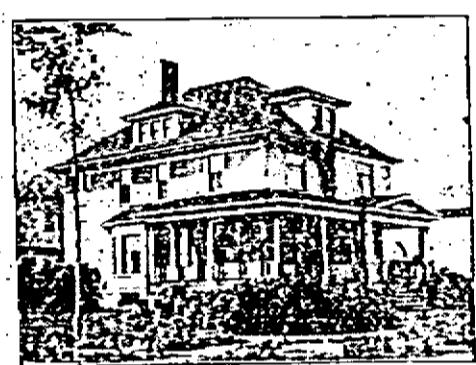

COMFORT in the COLDEST weather is guaranteed if you heat your home with the ONLY All-Steel Furnace, forcing every unit of heat to do its work and assuring a moist, even healthful temperature.

The "METEOR" heated this house last winter for only $35.00.

You can burn any kind of fuel in the "Meteor"—refuse, long slabs or good hardwood and soft coal. All can be burned with economical results and assuring comfort. One season's saving in hard cash from this gas-tight, smoke-proof furnace will prove its superiority to the wasteful old cast-iron heater.

A Tomahawk "Meteor" installed in accordance with our directions by a good tinner will give you better results and less inconvenience than the best Steam or Hot-water heating system devised.

The Supreme Court has granted a re-hearing in the Gebhardt case which will be argued at a later date.

Indications are that the people are determined to draft "Teddy" into the presidency and the Ex-President will not refuse to be drafted.

For the benefit of some of the readers who think the state income tax is a new thing we print a summary of the tax in another column and also show that the idea of an income tax was no new thing with the legislature of 1911, but has been agitated by the past legislatures for years and has been approved by the voters at the polls.

President Taft is in Ohio making speeches in defense of his administration. We sincerely like him; he certainly has a difficult task. It is a most ridiculous spectacle to see a president traveling over the country to get himself reelected. We should lengthen the presidential term and then pass a law that a president can not succeed himself, then we may get real service in the great executive chair instead of peanut politics.

COMMISSION GOVT REJECTED

At elections held last Tuesday, Madison and Grand Rapids, both rejected Commission Government for their cities. Madison, called the Athens of America" turned down this proposition by 416. Grand Rapids defeated the new form of government by about 125 majority. These rejections balance the two cities Janesville and Superior which cities carried the new form by small majorities a few days ago.

REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE MEET

F. A. Lowell, one of the Republican state central committeemen, was in attendance at a meeting of the committee, at the Republican House, Milwaukee, Tuesday night.

Sixteen of the twenty-two members were present. It was decided by a unanimous vote that the delegates to the National Convention are to be chosen at the spring election.

Of course this will be disappointing to the old gang. They prefer a caucus, not realizing that the day for their methods are past.

STILL MORE IMPROVEMENTS

Regarding the article in last week's paper "Wonders in Ten Years" we wish to state that we did not include all the improvements made nor did we wish to make it one-sided. Whenever there was a doubt, we omitted the item. The fact is the city spent ten thousand dollars on the city hall which we did not include. They paid about half of all street improvements and the school house site is paid for too. From an honest standpoint, the more we study what this city has accomplished in a financial way the past ten years the more pleased we should be.

TAKE TIME TO CONSIDER.

We stand exactly where we did a week ago on commission form of government for this city. We see no reason why so radical a step should be taken without thoroughly investigating conditions in other cities, where commission form has been adopted longest. The Antigo News Item states: "A representative was at Antigo to speak in favor of commission government but after he had examined conditions there he stated plainly that he saw no reason for a change in Antigo. It proves nothing that so many cities are making this radical change without proper investigation except that it is becoming a fad."

We are searching for information and do not feel competent to vote yet. Let us analyze the problem carefully and when we do vote, vote intelligently. This paper is ready and willing to print anything offered on this momentous question. We do not wish to reveal a single side and stop. We wish our readers to know both sides.

MUCH ADD ABOUT NOTHING

Although a New North representative called up the City Attorney and the City Treasurer January eighteenth and explained to them that Grand Rapids, Wisconsin, was not collecting the one percent fee with the taxes and asked for an opinion and published the following:

Trouble is being experienced with the law of 1911, Chapter 477, which provides salaries for town, city and village treasurers in lieu of fees which was published June 26 last or three months later than the time by the act for the fixing of salaries by the municipal board. The question has been raised whether treasurers can collect fees for work done this winter.

The state tax commission has decided the law will not apply to the collection of taxes this year and that the old rule of compensation will continue.—New North Jan. 18.

The News representative became much excited two days after the above article was printed and revealed the fact to the City Attorney and to the City Treasurer that some other cities were not taking the one percent.

The fact is, as we stated before the state tax commission has decided that this law does not become operative until another year, as the law was passed three months after the time set for fixing the salaries of the treasurers. Even if it did, what difference does it make as our City Treasurer does not receive the one percent? He gets a fixed salary and the one percent goes direct to the city.

We need the money and all pay their proportionate share of this one per cent in the same ratio as they pay the rest of their taxes.

No one is the loser.

The State Attorney General certifies the city attorney of the decision of the tax commission and practically confirms it. It is astonishing how much can be said about nothing.

FROM PROGRESSIVE NEWS SER-

VICE

Senator LaFollette's enemies in the Republican party have repeatedly stated that he was unknown in the East; that however enthusiastic the people of Wisconsin might be in support of the senior senator from that state, he was unknown by a vast majority of the easterners and regarded as dangerous by the few who were familiar with his record.

This political bubble was broken this week when Senator LaFollette went to New York to make his first speech in that city. His friends had arranged to have his meeting in Carnegie Hall, the largest auditorium in the city. The hall was so crowded that the police closed the doors long before the speaking began. Notwithstanding this fact, thousands stood outside in the hope of catching a glimpse of the Senator. These people who stood out in the cold not only saw him but heard him. Senator LaFollette would not go inside to address the assembled audience until he had made two speeches to the disappointed ones which could not find an inch of space in the great hall. The Senator's three speeches effectively disposed of the theory that because a man lives in New York he does not understand Progressive principles. Senator LaFollette told his audiences that he meant business, and his audiences responded that they meant business too. The Senator's advocacy of the initiative, the referendum and the recall did not shock the New Yorkers, on the contrary they cheered him when he spoke in support of these principles of popular government.

The New York meeting furnished a remarkable demonstration of the lengths to which certain papers, controlled by financial interests, will go in an effort to stem the Progressive tide. Notwithstanding the fact that the LaFollette meeting was a success and a tribute to the speaker, two of the morning papers refused to print a word about the throngs inside and outside the hall, or about the Senator's speech. These are the methods being employed by financially controlled newspapers to keep from their readers vitally important political news of the day. Of course, many readers of these papers must have been present at the LaFollette meeting and their failure to find even a bare mention of the meeting the next morning gave them a new light on the manner in which news is being suppressed when that news happens to concern a man who is known as the relentless enemy of Wall Street and its methods.

INDICTED FOR BRIBERY

The whole country was startled last week by the announcement that Clarence Darrow had been indicted by the grand jury at Los Angeles for bribing two juries in the McNarara case. Mr. Darrow has been one of the greatest lawyers in defense of Union Labor in the U. S. He stoutly protests his innocence and should be considered so until his guilt is pro

Doubtful Whether Commission Government Would Be Satisfactory

It is understood that a move is to be made to submit the question of commission government for Rhinelander, if possible prior to the spring election and thus, if successful put the plan at once on trial. This we believe will be too hasty a move for the voters to be as sufficiently informed on this subject as they should be.

All over the country towns are grasping at some plan to stay the extravagance in public expenditure that has been rampant everywhere for down years past. Like many another city Rhinelander feels this need but it is questionable if the need will be met by hurriedly adopting so entirely a new system without seeing where it may lead. No business man would think of making so radical a change in his own affairs without weighing up the possibilities.

What Rhinelander is most in want of is the elimination of the waste that characterizes nearly all municipalities today. This would certainly be possible by placing the affairs of the city wholly in the hands of three men provided,—and there is the stickler—that three men can be found who are qualified for the place, who are willing to devote their whole time to the work and who have no political or business affiliations that will bias them in their service.

In the recent days there has arisen discord and dissension in local affairs that will not down without better evidence of unselfish motives than is now apparent. This point has been frequently pressed by the Herald. As it stands today even though the people might express themselves in favor of a communal government the election is bound to be disappointing to every Rhinelander is going to have a man who desires only that a clean Kermis, and those interested can impartial, well-managed city government be insured, and that it be a great deal better than politicians.

The Rhinelander Kermis perpetuates the book idea in that it is being given under the auspices of the young people of Rhinelander. It is a matter that requires more than a brief thought before acting—the dances of all the nations or Rhinelander Herald.

Mrs. Frank Bryant, who is critically ill, remains about the same as she has for the past few days.

MORTUARY LITERATURE.

"His sorrowing wife," wrote the reporter, unthinkingly, and the city editor glared at him as he changed it to "his sorrowing widow." "Her sorrowing widow" was the way the reporter phrased his next obituary notice, and the city editor said things beneath his breath as he made it read, "her sorrowing husband." The English language is one of the mysteries of civilization.—Toronto Star.

Pieces for Quilt.

I have found the following method of cutting pieces for a quilt to be a saving of time and labor, says a contributor to Needlecraft. Have the pattern cut from cardboard and a piece of beeswax pressed on each corner; then press the bit of cloth to the pattern, cut it out, remove it, and you are ready for the next without the trouble of putting in and taking out pins.

Foolish Question.

The editor of the woman's page was on his vacation and the sporting editor had jumped into the breach. "Well, what do you think of this?" he snorted, as he held up a perfumed communication. "Here's a fool woman wants to know how to make a lemon tart; just as though a lemon wasn't tart enough already!"—Life.

He is Immune. The curious thing is why the book worm never seems to attack the mid-dleman.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.
